Office of Administrative Trials and Hearings

May 30, 2014

Executive Budget Highlights

- OATH Fiscal 2015 Budget. OATH's proposed Fiscal 2015 Expense Budget totals $35.3 million to fund the four tribunals that make up OATH. Personal Services funding totals $27.5 million and provides for 250 full-time positions.
- Administrative Tribunal Fine Revenues. OATH generates revenues for the City through the collection of fines issued by the tribunals for various violations. Revenues totaled $135.7 million in Fiscal 2013.

In Thousands	Actual			Planned
	2011	2012	2013	2014	2015
ECB Fines	$87,174	$94,888	$87,173	$89,805	$89,260
DOHMH Fines	45,631	53,639	41,548	36,350	30,000
TLC Fines	10,416	11,270	6,995	6,300	7,471
TOTAL	$143,221	$159,797	$135,716	$132,455	$126,731

- Decrease in Projected Revenue for Restaurant Fines. The 2015 Financial Plan includes a decrease of $15 million in DOHMH projected revenue, due in large part to the Council's efforts to reform the City's restaurant grading system. In October 2013, the Council passed legislation that improved the oversight and performance of the restaurant inspection system. On March 21, 2014, Speaker Melissa Mark-Viverito and the Health Department announced new restaurant grading rules designed to reduce fines and provide additional educational resources to help restaurants maintain high health standards throughout New York City.
- ECB Outstanding Debt. Uncollected Environmental Control Board fines total hundreds of millions. Both the Law Department and the Department of Finance are charged with recovering this outstanding debt. The Law Department targets the biggest violators and the Department of Finance pursues the debt through the use of a collection agency.

OATH Tribunal

The OATH Tribunal conducts disciplinary, disability, and adjudicatory hearings for City agencies. Hearings conducted by the OATH tribunal include: disciplinary cases brought by City agencies against civil service employees; matters pertaining to licensing, regulatory and enforcement authority, including cases involving City contractors; holders of various City licenses and loft tenants and their landlords; and hearings conducted after the New York City Police Department (NYPD) seizes vehicles of drivers accused of crimes.

DOHMH Health Tribunal

The OATH Health Tribunal provides hearings for individuals and businesses charged with violating laws relating to or affecting health within New York City. The OATH Health Tribunal does not issue Notices of Violation (NOVs) and does not conduct inspections. The Tribunal schedules about 65,000 cases each year. Most of the cases involve public health and environmental sanitation, with the largest number of cases coming from inspections of food service establishments.

Taxi and Limousine Commission (TLC) Tribunal

The TLC Tribunal is responsible for holding hearings on tickets that are issued by the TLC, NYPD and the Port Authority of NY/NJ. These tickets are issued to TLC licensees and non-licensees for violations of NYC laws and TLC rules and regulations. The TLC Tribunal is not a part of the TLC. Tribunal judges do not work for the TLC and are independent, impartial decision-makers.

Environmental Control Board (ECB)

ECB is the City's largest tribunal, and holds 200,000 hearings annually on quality of life and public safety charges that are filed by 13 different agencies, including the Department of Buildings, the Fire Department, the Department of Environmental Protection and the Department of Sanitation.
